Summary

I'm 36. For a long time I was working in a company as a content manager and a specialist in search engine optimization. But I realized that I'm fond of creating websites, so simultaneously I started to make single page sites. That's why I'm plunged into the web development.

More of my education was self-studiing. Also I've finished EPAM Front-End Course in Ukraine.

I've read these books:

- Head First HTML and CSS, HTML5 Programming
- A Book Apart Mobile First
- Head First JavaScript Programming: A Brain-Friendly Guide
- You Don't Know JS

Hard Skills

HTML5 + CSS3

JavaScript

GIT

SASS/LESS
